Gentlemen:

Can you inform me as to where I can obtain a copy of, Greens Numismatist's Reference and check book.? This is a pocket size (3⅝ in. by 6 in. by ½ in.) leather bound volume with gold edges compiled by Ben G. Green, Masonic Temple, Chicago, Ill. in 1912, and is a complete list of the coinage of the U.S. Mint and its branches, giving all principal varieties, private issues of gold, paper fractional currency, and encased postage stamps, with provisions for checking and recording the pieces in a collection. The pages are interspersed with blank ones for memorandum.

I have struggled along for some years with my private collection of U.S. Coins and greatly feel the need of this book.

I wrote the author, who was a member of your society, only to learn of his death some years ago. Also have appealed to a number of coin dealers without success.

The publisher is not given in the copy loaned to me and as far as can be learned is unknown.

The San Francisco Public Library gave me your address with the suggestion that possibly you could direct me to a copy of this book, so tho I am not a member of your society I took the liberty of imposing on you to this extent.

Thanking you in advance for any assistance you can render

I am

Very truly yours.

Julian J. Blaisdell.
